A.Y.2016-2017

May 22, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam:

The UST Miguel de Benavides Library through its Committee on Professional Training and Development is organizing a two-day seminar with the theme "Awareness and Appreciation of the UST Heritage Collections." This will be held on July 20-21, 2017 (Thursday & Friday), 8:00am-12:00nn/1:00pm-5:00pm at the UST Miguel de Benavides Library Conference Hall, ground floor. It will be attended by the library administrators, librarians and support staff and off-campus librarians and library science instructors.

The main objectives of the seminar are:

- To present the rare and priceless University Heritage collections and to discuss its importance in relation to the nation's history;
- To share the conservation and digitization practices of the UST Library; and
- To update the participants on the new library trend called MakerSpace.

We can only invite limited number of participants, thus, pre-registration is required at <https://goo.gl/forms/z3IHUPmvvTLne4Br2>.

Registration fee of Php1,200.00 includes workshop kit, seminar kit, certificate and meals.
Full payment must be deposited to: (any BPI Branch):

Account Name:	University of Santo Tomas
Account Number:	0151-0000-45 (peso savings)
Name of Bank:	Bank of the Philippine Islands España – UST Branch España, Sampaloc

Deposit slip should be scanned and sent to Ms. Arlene Matias at apmatias@ust.edu.ph & Mr. Edward Puzon at ehpuzon@ust.edu.ph.

Deadline of pre-registration and payment is on 03 July, 2017.

Application for CPD points is being processed and will be announced upon approval.

For Inquiries, interested attendees may contact the Miguel de Benavides Library at 406-1604 / 786-1611 local 8343 and look for Ms. Arlene Matias or Mr. Edward Puzon.

Sincerely,

Ms. Diana V. Padilla
